

THE OLD HOME.

BY J. T. JONES.

Some thirty years have swiftly flown,
 Fraught with toil and care,
 Since I left the pleasant home
 That's still to me so dear.

To me it seems but yesterday,
 That here in days of yore,
 I sported in my childish play
 About this farm-house door.

I feel the loved enchantment yet
 Borne now on memory's wings,
 Fond memories without regret—
 That childhood only brings.

Impressions time cannot erase,
 And sadly now I come
 To view again the quiet place
 That once I called my home.

When life, as a calm summer's day,
 'Neath a cloudless sky
 Went gayly as the waters play
 In the stream near by.

I hear that same familiar sound,
 I never shall forget,
 Where merry waters used to bound
 And where they're flowing yet.

Fit emblem of life's restless tide
 That holds us surely bound,
 As down life's rugged stream we glide
 Into the great beyond.

I stood beside the crystal stream
 That sparkles at my feet,
 While its gentle murmurings seem
 As a long lost friend to greet.

Would I could feel again the joy
 Thy rippling waters gave—
 Could sport once more, a truant boy,
 And in thy bosom lave.

Azain, upon thy pebbled bed,
 With pointed arrow strike
 The mullet and the honey head,
 The sunfish and the pike.

But time and three ne'er wait for man
 —Those happy days are gone,
 As goes our ever fleeting span,
 And with them life's gay morn.

The stately elm still stands erect,
 O'er shadowing the brook,
 As if its coolness to protect
 And in its mirror look.

While silently it seems to tell
 Of joys long forgot,
 And stands a giant sentinel
 To guard the sacred spot.

While sad emotions fill my breast,
 I wander here alone—
 Where are the dear ones of the past?
 Alas! they too have gone.

Some still journey on the road,
 Though wearily they tread,
 But most have reached their long abode
 —In the city of the dead.

And we're just waiting on this side,
 For ere long we must each
 Cross the river's chilling tide
 That silent city reach.

MY DOCTRINE.

Men of worth and men of men,
 Men of truth and men of will,
 Men of all the talents rare,
 People here and everywhere,
 Make a record that shall be
 Read to them in eternity.

Men, why humble to a thought
 That, by the evil one is wrought?
 Why not cast it far away
 And live hopeful every day?
 Don't hope for things, but hope to be
 Blessed through all eternity.

Read of Jesus, how he died,
 How the blood flowed from his side,
 And how he saves poor fallen men
 From all their sin, and a devil's den,
 And how he has prepared for these
 Mansions in eternity.

If you'd live as you'd wish to die,
 Tell the truth and not the lie;
 Serve the Lord with all your might,
 Always do the thing that's right.
 Trust in God and you shall be
 Happy in eternity.

The Appetite of a Goat.

Is envied by all whose Stomach and Liver are out of order. But such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills, give a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit, that insures perfect health and great energy. Only 25c at T. E. Paul's drug store.

Three Straight.

Senator Hill's straightforward enlistment for active Democratic service in the campaign now opening, pledging his best effort for the election of the Democratic national ticket, adds greatly to the promise of Democratic success and should mean the carrying of New York for Mr. Bryan.

The nomination of Mr. Stevenson for Vice President on the ticket with Mr. Bryan comes as near insuring Democratic victory in Illinois as was possible to any action that could have been taken by the Kansas City convention. When Mr. Stevenson ran on the ticket with Mr. Cleveland in 1892 he carried his State by 30,000 majority.

The existing Republican split in Illinois, due to the Tanner-Cullom feud intensified by administration interference in behalf of Cullom, creates a Democratic opportunity which Mr. Stevenson and his party will improve to the utmost.

Indiana, where a Republican defection caused by condemnation of the administration pressure for the passage of the infamous Porto Rican tariff bill is headed by ex-President Harrison, is also fine fighting ground for the national Democracy. That State is splendidly solid and compact in its Democratic organization, and an effective enthusiasm prevails. Earnest and aggressive work from now until November will carry Indiana for the Democratic party, and this earnest and aggressive work is promised by Indiana Democrats.

The outlook for Democracy in New York, in Illinois and in Indiana is bright indeed. Imperialism, the paramount issue of the campaign, has aroused the American spirit in these three great States to the point of effective protest against the imperial plotters. It will be difficult for the Hanna machine of Empire to make headway against this American sentiment. The Republican party's denial of the truth of the Declaration of Independence, its violation of the American Constitution, its abandonment of the Monroe Doctrine, has borne logical fruit in these three typical American Commonwealths. The indications are that New York, Illinois and Indiana will go Democratic in November.

—St. Louis Republic.

Stung by a Centipede.

Mrs. Thos. Saunders, Bluffton, Texas, was stung by a centipede. A doctor was sent for, but before he arrived some sensible friend wet a piece of brown paper with Morley's Wonderful Eight and applied it to the wound. The doctor said his services were not needed, for the poison was neutralized or killed by the Wonderful Eight. Mrs. S. did not suffer from the wound. Free trial bottles at W. M. Bell, Jopka Ky.

The Populist National Committee, while it has not taken final action, has practically agreed on a fusion with the Democratic party. Towne, the Populist vice presidential candidate, will confer with Mr. Bryan before he will announce whether he is to withdraw in favor of Stevenson.

An Epidemic of Diarrhoea.

Mr. A. Sanders, writing from Coconut Grove, Fla., says there has been quite an epidemic of diarrhoea there. He had a severe attack and was cured by four doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says he also recommended it to others and they say it is the best medicine they ever used. For sale by M. Cravens.

Japan consents to undertake the job of punishing the Chinese, Germany joining the other nations in consenting to the arrangement.

Eat What You Like.

When you take Morley's Liver and Kidney Cordial, for then, dyspepsia, indigestion heartburn, foul breath, dizziness, and the long train of similar troubles will disappear and your cleansed and awakened system will demand food. Sound digestion and sound appetite go together, and both follow the use of this time-tried remedy. Sold by W. M. Bell Jopka Ky.

Gov. Beckham has called special elections to be held in August to fill vacancies in the General Assembly caused by death and resignation. This strengthens the belief of many that the Governor will call an extra session of the Legislature.

Nine firemen were buried by a falling ceiling at Pittsburg. Three were rescued badly injured.

Spent a Good Farm Doctoring.

Mr. A. N. Noel, of Ashville, Kansas, says he spent a good farm doctoring himself for chronic diarrhoea but got no relief and was afraid that he must die. He chanced to get hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was permanently cured by it. For sale by M. Cravens.

OUR GLORIOUS COUNTRY.

Have you watched its marvelous growth? If not, The Weekly Enquirer wants to study the strides it has made. The first census of the United States was taken in 1790. Since then every succeeding ten years. The result has been as follows:

Year.	Population.	Year.	Population.
1790.....	7,239,881	1880.....	31,443,321
1800.....	9,638,822	1870.....	38,558,371

IS IT RIGHT

For an Editor to Recommend Patent Medicines?

From Sylvan Valley News, Brevard, N. C.

It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to publicly recommend any of the various proprietary medicines which flood the market, yet as a preventive of suffering we feel it a duty to say a good word for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We have known and used this medicine in our family for twenty years and have always found it reliable. In many cases a dose of this remedy would save hours of suffering while a physician is awaited. We do not believe in depending implicitly on any medicine for a cure, but we do believe that if a bottle of Chamberlain's Diarrhoea Remedy were kept on hand and administered at the inception of an attack much suffering might be avoided and in very many cases the presence of a physician would not be required. At least this has been our experience during the past twenty years. For sale by M. Cravens.
